DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-3, 5-9, 11-15, 17-21, 23-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Walker et al in view of Nymeyer.

Walker et al discloses auctioning services requested by a buyer utilizing the Internet, where a broker is disclosed and also where bidders are sellers of services (col 2, lines 35-45). The buyer is disclosed as maybe limiting the number of bids to be considered at an auction because of tradeoff (col 2, lines 50-65). A number of bids are made available to bidders, the buyer is notified of the bids, and the buyer selects a bidder (fig 15). Walker et al appears to disclose a buyers rating (col 3, lines 30-40).

Walker et al does not explicitly describe his system as an "auction".

Nymeyer discloses auctioning CPOs (col 2, lines 4-15).

It would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art to include CPOs as part of an auctioninf process because Nymeyer teaches the importance of price determination (col 1, lines 30-50).

3. Claims 4, 10, 16, 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Walker et al in view of Nymeyer as applied to claims above, and further in view of Saito et al.

Walker et al in view of Nymeyer does not disclose the service request as for print services.

Saito discloses print services as a commodity (col 3, lines 40-46).

It would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art to include the service request as for print services Saito teaches that printing services is one type of commerce (col 3, lines 40-46).

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims of recored have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
